COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS

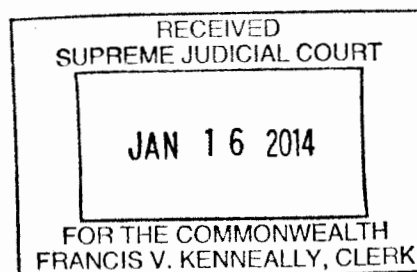

SUFFOLK, ss.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT
FOR THE COMMONWEALTH
SJC-11530

EMORY G. SNELL, JR.,
Appellant,

v.

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF MEDICAL EXAMINER,
Appellee.

APPELLEE OFFICE OF THE CHIEF MEDICAL EXAMINER'S
MEMORANDUM IN LIEU OF BRIEF

Introduction

Petitioner-Appellant Emory G. Snell, Jr. ("Snell") seeks to appeal a judgment of a single justice of the Supreme Judicial Court for Suffolk County, in which the single justice (Duffly, J.) denied Snell's petition for a writ of mandamus under G. L. c. 249, § 5.

The Appellee, Office of the Chief Medical Examiner ("OCME"), under Mass. R. App. P. 2, files this Memorandum in lieu of a formal brief, otherwise required by Mass. R. App. P. 16 and 19, in response to Snell's brief filed in this Court. The following memorandum is submitted to demonstrate that the Supreme Judicial Court for Suffolk County (the "County Court") did not abuse its discretion or commit any error of law, in denying Snell's petition for a writ of mandamus under G. L. c. 249, § 5.

BACKGROUND

Snell's petition for a writ of mandamus requested the single justice to order the OCME to comply with instructions of the Supervisor of Records (of the Public Records Division of the Office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth), contained in a letter dated March 8, 2013. (See Record Appendix attached to Appellant's brief, Exhibits numbered 12 and 14.) Snell had requested, under the Public Records Law, G. L. c. 66, § 10, that the OCME provide to him twenty-seven categories of personnel and other records related to William Zane, M.D., a medical examiner employed by the OCME. Snell had been convicted of first degree murder of his wife in 1995 after a trial at which Dr. Zane had testified regarding his autopsy of the victim in that case. Snell has argued that obtaining these records is important to enable him to establish a basis for obtaining a new trial of his first degree murder indictment. The OCME provided Snell, with nearly 300 pages of records, in response (see Record Appendix Exhibit number 14), but also stated that additional records Snell requested were exempt from disclosure as personnel records. (See G. L. c. 4, § 7 cl 26(c).)

On June 2, 2013, the County Court denied Snell's petition for a writ of mandamus. The County Court's action should not be overturned, because Snell failed to show that the extraordinary remedy of mandamus should be invoked because there was no clear cut duty on the OCME to act and there was an adequate alternative remedy. See Anzalone v. Administrative Office of the Trial Court, 457 Mass. 647, 654-655 (2010). Certainly, there has been no determination that the OCME actually failed to turn over any nonexempt public record.

The plaintiff sought to have enforced by writ of mandamus a letter of the Supervisor of Records ("Supervisor"), dated March 8, 2013, written in response to plaintiff's appeal of the OCME's production of records. The Supervisor's letter advised the OCME that it should review the records in its possession regarding Dr. Zane, redact as necessary, provide any responsive records to Snell, and/or provide the Supervisor a more detailed response in support of any claim that certain records are "personnel" records under G. L. c. 4, § 7 cl. 26(c). (See Record Appendix Exhibit No. 12.) Snell's petition in the County Court asserted that he had not been provided any further response from the OCME and sought an order from the Single Justice that the OCME comply with the Supervisor's letter of March 8, 2013.

The Single Justice observed in her order that Snell did "not maintain that he has made further inquiry of the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner, since his October, 2012 request, or that he has contacted the Supervisor of Records of the Public Records Division to be apprised whether the office of the Chief Medical Examiner has again concluded that the records are exempt from disclosure."¹ (See Judgment, p. 3, in Record Appendix.) The Single Justice also observed that Snell had filed, in the Barnstable Superior Court in his first degree murder case, a motion for expanded discovery for personnel records of Dr. Zane, to support his proposed motion for a new trial, and that that discovery motion was pending and had not yet been acted on. (See Judgment, p. 3 in Record Appendix; Criminal Docket attached hereto as Addendum.)

ARGUMENT

Under these circumstances, Snell failed to show that "no other adequate remedy" exists to warrant relief in the nature of mandamus. See Murray v. Commonwealth, 447 Mass. 1010 (2006) (rescript) (internal quotations and citations omitted). Indeed, as the Single Justice observed: "The petitioner has made no showing that a writ of mandamus would be appropriate here, where nothing in the record before this Court indicates a refusal to provide the petitioner with any nonexempt record, and where discovery motions concerning these issues are pending in the Superior Court." (See Record Appendix, Judgment, p. 4.) Thus, the petitioner showed no clear cut duty the OCME failed to satisfy and no unavailable adequate remedy. Anzalone v. Administrative Office of the Trial Court, 457 Mass at 654-655. Here, there was no determination that the OCME did not disclose a public record, the Supervisor's letter did not identify any such record, and the petitioner had pending in the Superior Court a motion for such discovery which, if allowed, would entitle him to more records than the public records law would. The judgment of the County Court should be affirmed.

Respectfully submitted,

EXAMINER
